

LINEAR
MODEL LS41L

The Linear leg system incorporates a streamlined form with a modern silhouette. The integration of the strong rectilinear lines of our 1.0" square tubing with custom flush joinery creates this up-to-date look. The result is a fresh, stylish design well suited for today's contemporary bath.

(Shown with optional glass shelf.)

Linear style not recommended for use with china sink tops.

Palmer Consoles are completely modular and custom built to any design and leg configuration
